"Jeems" Redpath Makes Himself Conspicuous As An Agitat or.

JEANCE IN ENGLAND. a to The Bee. s, September 14, 1 a. m.-A asy to wreck the down express This train, which comes from Edinburgh and Glasgow, it appears, was supposed to carry among its passengers the Russian Grand Duke Constantine and Admiral Poppoff, of the Russian navy, and some other Russian officials, who had been visiting Greenock for the purpose of examining certain vessels now in course of construction there. Nihilist refugees in England, it is believed, had concocted a plar, for blowing up the train and destroy. ing the officials, as well as other passengers, for the purpose of demonstrating that, even in England, the lives of the Russian Prince and his aide were not safe from the vengeance of their terrible and mer Alera association. By a most pro idential inter-ruption this well laid, plot failed of ac-complishment, a though the escape

Another Unloaded Revolve, Tragedy. RIVER HEAD, L I , S-ptember 14 -Two sons of J. H. Wells, a prominent citizen of this place sged tifteen and seventeen, were playing with an old revolver, generally supposed not to be loaded, in the house last evening, while the fami'y were at church. The youngest son snapped the revolver fourteen or fifteen times, siming playfully at his brother, but there was no explosion. Finally the boy mounted a horse block in front of the house. and as the elder boy approached, he said, "Halt, or I'll shoot you." He pulled the trigger as he had done so often before. This time there was an explosion, and the seventeen year old through the heart. The boy on the the cartridge did not explode sooner, after the many times it had been struck, both on this evening and pre-
